

In Coquitlam.

Half of business is control systems for the entertainment business, e.g. roller coasters.

Controls Engineer/Technologist

Working with our team of experienced engineers, technologists and programmers, you will be involved with designing, integrating, programming and troubleshooting electrical control systems in the various industries we service throughout the world.

Daily responsibilities may include:

- Control system design
- Electrical design
- PLC programming
- Design and programming of Human Machine Interfaces (HMI)
- Site commissioning
- Project proposals and estimation
- Preparing functional specifications
- Subcontractor selection and supervision
- Equipment selection and procurement.

Job requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree or Diploma of Technology in Electrical Engineering, Automation, Mechatronics or Industrial Engineering
- 3+ years of experience in the design and commissioning of discrete and/or motion control systems
- 3+ years of experience with PLC programming (Allen-Bradley, Siemens)
- Experience with AutoCAD or EPLAN
- Excellent communication skills
- Proven problem-solving ability
- Commitment to significant travel.